Whereas, The State of Tennessee has long been without a representation in the Congress of the United States, and has had only a partial representation since the beginning of the war; and whereas, the loyal people of the State have, at the ballot box and in many other ways, expressed their desire to discharge their duties as citizens of the United States of America, and did, on the 4th day of March, 1855, choose and elect a Legislature of the State, who have duly assembled under the Constitution and laws of the State, and have fully reorganized the State Government, and have elected two Senatorato the Congress of the United States, and have, by their

State Government, and have elected two Senators to the Congress of the United States, and have, by their act of June 9, 1865, apportioned the representation of the State in the Congress of the United States.

Therefore, I, William G. Brownlow, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby command the sheriffs or coroners of the several counties of the State of Tennessee to open and hold an election at all the places of holding elections in their respective counties, on Thursday, the third day of August next, for the purpose of electing representatives in the Congress of the United States, according to the provisions of the said act of June 9th, 1865.

And whereas, since the election of the present General Assembly, the following vacancies have occurred in the representation thereof, viz:

curred in the representation thereof, viz:

In the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Johnson, Carter, Washington and Sullivan, caused by the resignation of the Hon. R. R. Butler;
In the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Knox and Roane, caused by the resignation of the Hon. Samuel R. Rodgers: of the Hon. Samuel R. Rodgers;

of the Hon. Samuel R. Rodgers;
In the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Bedford and Marshall, caused by the resignation of the Hon W. H. Wisener;
In the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Hardin, McNairy and Hardeman, caused by the resignation of the Hon. Fielding Hurst;
In the House of Representatives, from the county of Giles, caused by the resignation of the Hon. Jan.

Giles, caused by the resignation of the Hon. Jas.

From the county of Stewart, caused by the resig-nation of the Hon. James Woods; From the county of Henry, caused by the non-acceptance of the Hon. Thomas Crutchfield;

From the counties of Lincoln, Marshall and Gile caused by the non-acceptance of the Hon. David Mcf_hey.

Therefore, the sheriffs or coroners of the several counties in which said vacancies exist, shall open and hold said election for the purpose of filling the vacancies existing in the representation of said several counties.

And whereas, the General Assembly, on the 5th day of June, passed "An act to limit the elective franchise," which is herete annexed, and made a part of this proclamation; the said sheriffs and the judges of said elections, and all others, are hereby strictly enjoined to enforce the provisions and restrictions declared in said act, and to require that every voter shall be qualified to vote according to

And whereas, the said act provides: That it shall be the duty of the County Court Clerk in each county to open and keep a registration of voters, before whom proof, under oath, shall be made that the voter falls within the provisions of said act; said County Court Clerks are hereby commanded, with-out delay, to procure a bound book, or books, for each county, and to open and keep the same as a registration of voters of said county, and shall fur-nish to such persons as may fall within the provisions of said act a certificate of registration, and no person shall be permitted to vote at said election without such certificate.

The following form of certificate of registration is respectfully recommended : State of Tennessee, } so

County of -I, A — B — , Clerk of the County Court of said county, do hereby certify that proof under oath has been made before me, that C — D — falls within the provisions of section 1, of an actentitled, "An act to limit the elective franchise," passed June 5th, 1865, and is therefore a qualified voter of said
